

To Whom It May Concern,

1/30/2022

I had the pleasure of having Rob van den Biggelaar in my Berklee Fall 2021 Writing and Producing Advertising Music class, where he earned a grade of A.

His musicianship is at a very high level both as a vocalist, composer and performer. In addition he has considerable skill producing with DAW software including the use of a professional level mic and audio interface, editing in an audio/MIDI hybrid production, and mixing. I found him to be consistently creative, highly intelligent, conscientious and interesting, often bringing a different take to discussions that was valuable to me and to the class.

I highly recommend Rob for any professional work relating to music composition, performance, production.

Sincerely,
